

Steve Gryb, the Pied Piper of Percussion from Miami, Florida, presents “The Rhythm is Going to Get You!” show, America’s most interactive family percussion show for the young and young-at-heart! This high-energy and hands-on “percussion party” has entertained and educated audiences in Canada and 41 states from Key West, Florida to Fairbanks, Alaska for over 20 years. Each show invites everyone to participate and play instruments with the Pied Piper of Percussion that include tambourines of all shapes and sizes, Remo hand-drums, and colorful maracas for the wiggle, jiggle and jam percussion parade.

Steve will also be presenting “The Percussion Petting Zoo” hands-on, interactive, musical activity filled with hundreds of unique percussion instruments from around the world such as Boomophones (Boom Whacker Xylophone), baby cajon shakers, Remo hand drums and lollipop drums, seed pods and nut shakers (African and South American), rain sticks, animal-shaped rhythm instruments, and so many more.

Steve Gryb is considered one of the world’s foremost ambassadors for percussion and is endorsed by many of the world’s best known percussion companies such as Zildjian Cymbals, Remo Percussion, RhythmBand, amongst many others. For more details about these great entertainment activities, visit: <http://grybmusic.com/percussion/percussion.html>